

CONCERT TRANSLATIONAL PROGRAM GRANT WORKSHOP

In preparation for the 2021 Cancer Institute NSW Translational Program Grants, we invite all CONCERT members to join this workshop. We will hear from 3 previous grant recipients who will share their experience and insights.

All members who are considering applying must attend.

DATE: 31 AUGUST

TIME: 11AM

ZOOM: <https://unsw.zoom.us/j/91925682389>

02 8015 6011

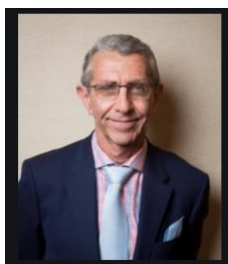

Webinar ID: 919 2568 2389

AGENDA

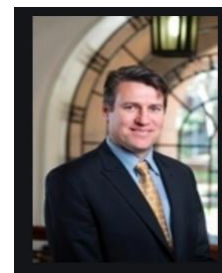

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
11AM	Welcome and Introduction	Professor Michael Barton
11.05AM	Introduction to the Cancer Institute NSW Translational Program Grant (TPG) grant scheme	Stephanie Macmillan
11.15AM	2019 TPG Grant Recipient: Cancer imaging and targeted radiation therapy: Innovation, discovery and translation	Professor Paul Keall
11.30AM	2015 TPG Grant Recipient: Chemotherapy-induced Peripheral Neuropathy: Assessment strategies, Treatments and Risk Factors	Professor David Goldstein and A/Professor Susanna Park
11:45AM	Q&A	All

A/Professor Susanna Park
Associate Professor, Physiology,
School of Medical Sciences,
University of Sydney

Professor David Goldstein
Conjoint clinical professor,
UNSW and a senior staff specialist in the Department of Medical Oncology at Prince of Wales Hospital and Director of the Translational
Cancer Research Network

Professor Paul Keall
Professor and NHMRC Senior
Principal Research Fellow
Director of the ACRF Image X
Institute
University of Sydney, School of Health Sciences